In what ways do you feel excluded this Christmas? What are the divisions and means we use in our society to find exclusivity? Which ones are you involved in and why do you think they will give you hope?

How does being in an "exclusive" group help you feel special? Do you see the church as being "exclusive" or "inclusive?" Why are so tempted to "exclude" others from the places we find hope in?

What does the Gospel say about who we really have excluded from our lives? If we are totally reliant on God and His calling through the birth of His Son on Christmas, Jesus life, death and resurrection, just how exclusive can we be?

This Christmas time, who could your invite into your life who has been excluded for one reason or another and why cannot reciprocate back to you?

As you reflect on Christmas calling where does your hope really lie? How much does your life reflect your answer?
